

ORDINANCE NO. 1202

1 AN ORDINANCE relating to the sale of 2 surplus county personal property.

3 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

4 SECTION 1. The county Administrator's Office is authorized 5 to determine the propriety and advisability of selling and the 6 manner of conducting sales of surplus personal property.

7 SECTION 2. When the surplus item or lot carries a depre-
8 ciated value of $1,000 or over in the current inventory, a survey 9 committee will be convened to estimate the market value and 10 advise the date, location and manner of sale that is likely to 11 be the most advantageous to the county. The originating 12 department, Property Office and Administrator's Office are to 13 be represented on each survey committee that is convened.

14 SECTION 3. From the proceeds of each sale of surplus per-15 sonal property, the Office of Property and Purchasing will be 16 reimbursed for necessary expenditures for advertising, postage
17 and selling fees when appropriate, and the balance will be de-18 posited into the fund or account as determined by the Office of 19 Budgets and Accounts.

20 PASSED by the Council at a regular meeting thereof on the
